His Majesty will then read the reply thereto and hand it to the President.

The following Welsh hymn will then be sung to the tune "Hyfrydol" :—

"Arglwydd, dyro dy dangnefedd,
I sirioli daear lawr ;
Gogonedda dy drugaredd,
Yng ngofidiau'r cystudd mawr ;
Pan fo bywyd yn ymddatod,
Ac yn griddfan am ryddhad,
Gad i gystudd eto wybod
Fod yr Iesu yn y wlad.

Feddyg hawddgar, anffaeledig,
Parod wyt i wrando cri ;
Ysbryd isel cystuddiedig,
Pwy a'i cyfyd ond Tydi ;
Gwell na'r bywyd yw dy gariad,
Gwell na'r byd yw'th nefol wawr ;
Yn dy ddwyfol gydymdeimlad,
Aros yma, Iesu mawr."

—Dyfed.

A Dedicatory Prayer will then be offered by the Lord Bishop of St. David's.

The following hymn will then be sung to the tune " Abridge " :

" Accept this building, gracious Lord,
No temple though it be ;
We raised it for our suffering kin,
And so, Good Lord, for Thee.

Accept our Gift, O Lord, and give
To all who here may dwell,
The will and power to do their work,
Or bear their sorrows well.

From Thee all skill and science flow ;
All pity, care, and love,
All calm and courage, faith and hope,
Oh ! pour them from above."

—Charles Kingsley.
